VOL. III. NO. 25.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1897.

PRICE, 5 CTS

MONTANA'S 1897 OUTLOOK.

That keen figure in American business and American racing lines, Marcus Daly, was in Chicago last Tuesday and Wednesday. He went to Montana Wednesday evening, after a long conference with Ed A. Tipton, the manager of the Montana tracks at Anaconda and Butte, in the welfare of which Mr. Daly is deeply interested. Mr. Tipton was a keen figure in harness-dom before he went into the Montana racing enterprise. His management of the Kentucky harness meeting earned him golden spurs. Last year he was the working man of both the Lexington association and the Montana tracks. The latter's expansion forced him to resign his Kentucky post. He will give all his attention to Montana racing this season, going west in May. Last season's Montana racing term—it produced Ogden and May W—was of forty-one days, Anaconda seventeen and Butte twenty-four. This year it will be expanded to fifty days, twenty-one at Anaconda and twenty-nine at Butte. The towns are twenty-seven miles apart. Denver and Colorado Springs will hold meetings before those of Montana.

Some twenty racing stakes, from $1,000 to $1,500 guaranteed value will be offered for the Anaconda and Butte meetings. The racing at each will be mixed, the harness horses having their share of the prizes. But the offerings for the thoroughbreds will be rich enough to attract the best horses in America.

There is but a superficial general idea of the Montana enterprise. Last spring the Anaconda and Butte tracks and their equipments were mere ruins. Some $150,000 was spent under Ed Tipton's management and upon his idea to make them what they should be. There are no better American racing establishments in existence today than they are. The earned a profit in 1896.

A novel plan will be put in operation at the two 1897 Montana meetings. This and that Eastern track talks of mutual betting. The Butte and Anaconda management has gone to actuality about the mutual system. Both tracks will manage their own betting this year. The machines and tickets have been bought and shipped to Montana already. Only the mutual system will be used. Its result will be of keen interest to lovers of racing in America.

The extent of Marcus Daly's investment in racing is best shown by the catalogue of his Bitter Root Stud, which is just out—a book of 275 pages. A record of Mr. Daly's harness horse possessions will be as large or larger. There are 200 individual pedigrees of horses on the noble rancho within the racing catalogue. The Daly establishment has no American equal in finish and equipment. A rough estimate suggests an investment of more than a million dollars about it. Tammany is the chief of its thoroughbred sires.

Marcus Daly, plain, keen, concise, and conservative says: "it's a pretty good place."

"Ogden's in the Suburban but I don't think he will start." Said he. "The colt's more likely to go in the Realization. That's more seasonable. The early handicaps are too early for a three year old. I can only recall two who could have won the Brooklyn or Suburban—Salvator and Tammany. But it's Byrne's business. His entry of Ogden was a mere complimentary one. The colt's a good colt."

How good Ogden is can be opined on top of the fact that Mr. Daly won $95,000 on him when the son of Kilwarlin and Oriole won the Futurity. Mr. Daly is not much of a bettor, if you consider the Daly idea of things—always big and broad. Yet his winnings on Ogden were less than those over the Tammany—Lamplighter match and hardly as large as those over Montana when he won the Suburban Handicap of 1892.

Mr. Daly's a big man all around. Small things do not interest him much. He could not see, Wednesday afternoon, how pool selling could be coupled with gambling and be prohibited by law in Montana. If it could be, Mr. Daly would, he said, be satisfied to cease taking an interest in racing until legislative wisdom asserted itself.

Among American millionaires, there is none so everydayish as Marcus Daly. He's about fifty years old, sturdy, ruddy, gray, almost to whiteness of hair and mustache, witty and keen of tongue and sharply in line about the affairs of the day. He is one of your practical and liberal men of affairs, with ideas about the affairs that come from experience. There is no valet on Marcus Daly's trail. He picks up his bag, walks—if he has time—to the depot and is respected for his own sake by every man who knows him. He abhors the newspaper hi-kysm that dubs him "the Montana millionaire" and "The Copper King," and hasn't a dram of pretension about him.

PACIFIC C. J. CLUB'S NEW PLAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., January 28.—Secretary Leake of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club wires about Wednesday's racing: "Our latest innovation, all long races was a great success. We had large attendance and perfect starts, the racing consuming only three hours and ten minutes time. I am satisfied that increasing the distance of races will be generally beneficial. It will, too, be more popular with the public and the betting fraternity."

The American Sporting Manual

A YEAR BOOK AND COMPENDIUM OF RECORDS

The Manual will be: A Book for the Pocket.

A Book of Authority.

A Comely Book. A Cheap Book.

It will contain all general sporting records in use. All American Turf Records. All American Track Records. A twenty-page history of all the prize fights and boxing matches of 1896, from January 1 to December 31, 1896. Two handicap tables; one reproduced from the American Racing Manual, and a new one of even sharper application to racing, never before published.

The Manual will contain the 1896 figures of Baseball, Aquatics, Football, and Athletics in general—racing, trotting, pacing and all departments of sporting. Within The Manual's covers will be 100 pages of pure sporting figures.

The American Manual's handicap tables alone are such as have been usually sold at $50 and $100 each. With them are published explanatory keys and three races which have been run and to which the figures have been applied. These keys show horses, estimate of ability on past races, figures on the race to be run and their position in race to which figures were fitted.

Table No. 2 is entirely new. The track records and time estimate in the book are the result of nine months daily work of five experienced men.
